SUMMER CAMPOUT
MAY 29-31
GOVERNOR DODGE STATE PARK

To get to Governor Dodge from Madison, take USH's 18 and 151 west into Dodgeville. In Dodgeville, head north on STH 23 maybe 3 or 4 miles and enter the park on the right. Proceed to Group Campsite D.

Remember, vehicle admission stickers are required for entry into the park--$14 annual/$3.50 daily. The cost of the campsite is $2 per adult per day and 75¢ per child 7 to 17 per day. Children under 7 camp free.

The park offers all the great things we've come to expect from our state parks--swimming, fishing, boating, hiking, horseback riding and raccoons! So, come for the entire weekend or just for the day on Saturday and enjoy the hills, valleys and oak savannah of Wisconsin's driftless area.

Request for funds for SARJAN. This is an organization in a housing settlement on the outskirts of Ahmedabad started by a retired Indian teacher to teach creativity and other skills to local children using art, music etc. I visited them in 1981 and designed and built an adventure playground out of scrap. They now have a credit union program and a loan program to help the young people get small businesses. If I channel the funds through the SARJAN program it will serve two purposes. It would get SARJAN accepted to participate in the Trick-Up program which is only accepting applications this year. It would provide SARJAN with access to the technical assistance small loan programs in a number of countries for years. In the event that SARJAN does not accept our offer, I would like funds to send two trick-up programs from each country to study the programs in India. I have been selected as one of the leaders and will be able to get the funds to use as we see best. SARJAN's advisors are not sure if they can provide the funds to use as we need. If I have the money, I would like to provide the funds to use as we need. If I have the money, I would like to provide the funds to use as we need. If I have the money, I would like to provide the funds to use as we need.

President's Message

Wow! We have a busy summer ahead of us. Due to the numerous submissions Gordon received for this issue, I'm limiting my message to one paragraph. I do want to share a few announcements for those who were unable to attend the April meeting. First, the 501(c)(3) application is ready to go! It should be in the mail by the May meeting. I want to thank Kevin and Buck for their work on this important document. Gordon deserves a special thank you for donating his time and legal expertise - we couldn't have done it without him! The proposed dues increase was approved by all except Walt. When I asked Walt if he wanted to comment, he made an excellent point. He said that until we have an operating budget, he can't be sure that more money is justified. Thus, John and I will work on developing a budget for the group's approval. I want to thank Walt for pointing out this shortcoming. Accounting is not my forte! Finally, you've been hearing this for years, but the Global Education project is nearing completion (truly). The video is being duplicated at this very moment. I should have the guide ready for printing by the end of April, if not sooner. With a little luck and a lot of hard work, the package should be finished by the May meeting.
MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF APRIL 7, 1992

CALL TO ORDER

Nancy presided and noted there were several corrections to the minutes from the previous meeting. She then realized there was no one to take minutes for this meeting, and solicited volunteers. After a pregnant pause, Jeff agreed, but by then he'd already forgotten what was wrong with the previous meeting's minutes—something about a baby shower at the wrong house I think. Since there was no formal motion to correct the minutes (or for that matter, to approve them) Buck's reputation is still intact.

We decided to introduce ourselves by saying how we voted on the referendum. (I know there were 3, but we're talking about the referendum.) We were about evenly split. Those from outside the district mostly said they would have voted "no", but when queried admitted that their towns' pools were not on a lake.

TREASURER'S REPORT: courtesy of John-- 92068 in the Global Ed account, 7708 in the General Account with most dues now deposited. Most expenses have to do with admin-mailings, printing, etc. The treasurer was prompted by Nancy to note the addition to the family of Amanda Calisi (sorry about the spelling--the middle name is from an exotic island and I don't speak the language there) on 3/15, healthy weight and growing fast.

FAST EVENTS:

--Baron Bliss party and Earl's tattoo were both hits apparently.
--120 attended the Parents' Brunch—we'll lose a few bucks since we paid for 125 meals, and had around 115 paying attendees. Late registration and a relatively low parent/family turnout were blamed on a late mailing from the Milwaukee Peace Corps office.
Complaints and questions centered around our being forced to dine in a small smoking room, table arrangements, and the food, but the feeling seemed to be that it was still a success. It was rumbled that we might ought to think about moving back to the Great Hall at Memorial Union. Comments should be addressed to Helene.
--The St. Louis Regional Meeting was held, but none of us attended.

FUTURE EVENTS:

--Doug's having a Nepalese luck lunch which has already been held on April 10 and was certainly wonderful.
--The Cardinal Bar Benefit will be held on May 16—a great place to go with the parents and the graduation ceremonies held earlier in the day. Everyone should bring Ethiopian recipes (but not Somalian—someone says the food there is not as good, but the secretary is not so sure...) to the next meeting. Proceeds will go to the Horn of Africa (Ethiopia, Djibouti, Somalia—oh, and Eritrea and Tigre, too, depending on who's drawing the map). Someone volunteered to "lean" on Jerry Minnich to promote us in the Isthmus. (What about Anne Strainchamps?)
--Summer campout on 3/31 at Governor Dodge. Sorry, Devil's Lake sold out, but all agreed Dodge was real nice, too. Both parks have trees and a lake. Total cost of $53 to be split among attendees includes raccoons. A real bargain, sure to be lots of fun, bring a bicycle.
--The RPCV's in Michigan are inviting us to a nice campout in Hastings on 7/23. Carolyn has camped there every summer since a long time ago—she pretended her left hand was Michigan and pointed to the park located in the middle of her palm.
--Mary Grace Brown and Dan have invited us to their place on Hwy 82 west of Brooklyn (Wisconsin, not New York) to plant 300 wild-type trees provided by the DNR. Call 455-1426.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

--Sunday Brunch will be held at Lakefront in Memorial Union as in previous years. Next one is 4/26.
--A new letter for new RPCV's arriving in Madison has been prepared. Jim our PC Rep. was happy to have something to give to people he encounters.
--American Recruiters Theatre—tickets have been purchased for a crowd of us, and Nancy has a few extra for those who forgot.
--There's a new National Council Executive Director.
--Child Survival wants us all to write to our Senators to ask that funding be included in a continuing resolution.

AND IN THE "WE DON'T ENDORSE POLITICAL CANDIDATES" CATEGORY...

--Roseanne announced a waffle brunch for $1 or so a person at her house 2714 Oakridge, and then a lunch at the Concourse for $50 (most seemed to prefer the waffles for some reason) both to meet and benefit Ada Bear who is challenging Clarenbach for the Democratic nomination for Congress to run against Republican incumbent Klug. Gloria Steinhaim (spelling?) will be at the Concourse. Nice things were said about Ada, except that she's apparently not as pretty as Klug.
--Nancy has tickets to a Jim Moody event. He's probably running for Senator against Kasten. She has one extra ticket and needs a date 'cause her significant other doesn't want to go. Jim Smith also has a couple of tickets to give away. Nancy assured us she was not representing us, but would go, eat Moody's food, and then maybe not even vote for him, even if he is an RPCV.

BUSINESS AND COMMITTEES

DUES: Dues were increased by unanimous vote less one. The one dissenter wanted to know why we never make a budget. Nancy said she'd work on it with our resident budget maker. Dues will rise from $12 to $15 for individuals, $17 to $20 for families, effective January 1, 1993.

CALENDAR: Don reported the accounts are as follows (for the 1992 calendar only—i.e. not counting carry-over from previous calendars): Income of $28,464 plus $430 just received, expenses of $25,994 including $935 already donated and some $21,000 for production and the rest presumably for mailings, etc. "Profit" of about $2,800. Don figures profit would have been about $5000 more if we hadn't split the printing into two jobs, i.e. if we had ordered 8000 from the start. (Confused? See below where it says printing 10,000 this year in one batch will be $14,287, while printing 8000 last year in two batches was $21,000.) We have about 1,200 left over calendars and gave away about 800, meaning we must have sold 6000. Don showed us a nifty printout from his computer which is where all the numbers came from, printed on a non-standard paper size.

Henry gave a full accounting of the 1993 calendar process. We've got pictures. Julie is working on the borders. Buck is having his text ideas verified by the "good taste" committee—Henry and Roseanne. Bids are in: $12,835 for 7,500 calendars, or $14,287 for 10,000. Extensive discussion over how many to print—consensus (less one, but a different one) went for 10,000 even though it represents a bit of optimism. The dissenter was worried about us possibly overextending ourselves financially. We have at least one new outlet—'Connection Works—and an old outlet—Earth Care—will probably buy more since they're increasing their catalog circulation this year, plus Don is gung ho and will hawk them on street corners if necessary. No formal vote was taken on how many to order, and it was agreed without objection to trust Henry, Roseanne, and Jim Good to make the final decision.

CAMPUUS RECRUITER: Jim Smith asked if Ronkin Educational Group could speak to us for 15 minutes about how they help people take entrance exams (GRE, etc.). We declined because we'd already passed the tests, but offered to circulate their literature and encourage new RPCV's to consider their services. Jim also circulated a volunteer list for an upcoming Career Fair.

CALANDAR MONEY DONATION REQUEST

Africa News Service (720 Ninth St., Durham, NC 27702; 919/286-0747) publishes a newsletter and supplies news and feature material to broadcast and print media (e.g., NPR and Washington Post). They currently are trying to raise funding to match a potential $500,000 grant from the Rockefeller Foundation which would be used to further expand their media services. Given the extreme lack of coverage of African affairs in American media, I feel that a donation to Africa News Service will help to fulfill Peace Corps' third goal of educating Americans about developing nations. I'd also recommend that anyone interested in following African events spend $30 for a subscription to "Africa News". You can call me for more details.

SUGGESTED DONATION: $200
REQUESTED BY: Walt Zeltner
I submit the Tigray Development Association (TDA) as an organization doing work supportable by the RPCVs of WI-Madison Chapter and request that $500 be donated to that group.

Tigray, with a population of about 5 million, is located in the northern part of Ethiopia. The war for the downfall of Mengistu was fought in this part of the country, and many schools and health centers were destroyed.

The TDA is a Washington-based non-profit humanitarian organizations with chapters in major US cities. Established in 1989 to assist and participate in the developmental process in Tigray, which had been totally neglected by successive Ethiopian rulers, TDA has five general areas of interest: education, health services, agriculture, science and technology, and environmental protection.

The local TDA Chapter has been working to collect supplies, primarily medical and educational (textbooks). My proposal is that the donation be donated directly to the local contact person, Haile Berhe, for the purpose of either: 1) purchasing any needed supplies not otherwise donated, or 2) paying for the transportation of the supplies on hand (a substantial expense).

I intend to ask Haile Berhe to attend the May 6 meeting for the purpose of answering any questions.

This organization is located on the coast of Oaxaca, Mexico. It is run by Anna Jorgensen, a Swedish citizen, and staffed by a combination of paid staff and volunteers. It appears to be the only program in that area of Mexico which provides both long-term housing, care and treatment for poor handicapped children. They also work with parents, helping to train them to work with their children. Some of the parents also receive training to help them to be able to work and support their family. Contributions may be funneled through tax-exempt organizations in the U.S. and Europe.
Calendar Money Charity Request

RPCV Tonga 1988-90

Amount Requested: $200.00

To be donated to: Chanel High School

Kingdom of Tonga

Persons in Charge: Frank O'Shea and Viliani Kaufusi, Agriculture Instructors

Reason: To purchase hand tools and seeds to continue a hands-on agriculture training program for high school students.

MADISON LITERACY COUNCIL

I would like to request a donation on behalf of the Madison Literacy Council. Literacy action is in keeping with the Peace Corps principle of helping people to help themselves. Both American born new readers and foreign speaking residents of the Madison area need reading materials in their homes to supplement lessons given by volunteer tutors. A $300 Peace Corps donation would provide either an annual subscription to The New Reader's Press or one The New Oxford Picture Dictionary. I have personal experience in using both of these excellent sources and will help the Literacy Council distribute them to approximately 30 students who otherwise could not afford them. (Each source can be bought for about $10). These kinds of materials not only empower the new reader to function better in this highly literate society, they also empower the student to teach their friends and family—multiplying the value of the gift five and ten fold.

Respectfully submitted by Carolyn Peacock, RPCV Benin 1987-89

KANDY CHILDREN'S CENTRE

RPCV-Wisconsin has been a contributor to Kandy Children's Centre since 1989. We've watched it grow from a community-sponsored project serving only Kandy's street children to a growing endeavor that has the long-term goal of establishing a supported community that includes housing and the development of a craft industry. The centre chose to use and save the RPCV grants for seed money to start a true community development effort, as close to the Peace Corps spirit of self-help as one can wish for. Best of all, we didn't even need to tell them what to do with the money. KCC is exploring the idea of collaborating with a Women's Development project funded by several other international non-profits, with programs that would initially revolve around women and children, but would eventually target the whole family.

I am requesting $750 for a continued sponsorship of KCC. Fr. George Steven, the current Chairperson of the KCC Board, has been faithful in keeping us informed of KCC's progress, and it has proven to be a fruitful investment on our part. Let's hear it for sustained relationships!

Funds would either be given as a gift to the person(s) featured in the photo, or if not feasible, a contribution would be made to a project directly benefiting the featured subject(s).

Disbursement would be facilitated by the photographer (or person responsible for the photograph). RPCVW would reimburse the photographer once payment was made and a brief report delivered. For example, the photographer might know someone traveling to the country and arrange a transfer. The photographer would reimburse this person, and RPCVW would reimburse the photographer upon receipt of a written statement of what happened. Note, this will satisfy IRS reporting requirements for instances where ordinary records are not available.

If for any reason delivery of funds is deemed completely infeasible or impractical by the photographer, or if delivery is not possible within the calendar's calendar year, then funds would revert to the general calendar fund.

15 African-American, 1 Latina
Most are single parent head of household
Supervision provided by PICADA staff

This is a grass roots group that was organized in the fall of 1991 to empower residents living in the Somerset development of South Madison. This area is one of the city’s "Blue Blanket" locations, targeted for special services because of it’s high rates of crime/violence/drug related problems. These women are trying to change the Somerset image by forming a community network which will increase the safety for all residents but especially for their children. They would like to enhance the appearance and usefulness of their community center, have some funds for cultural events, such as the recent visit by Angela Davis, that would otherwise be inaccessible due to limited resources and perhaps begin a small business enterprise. In kind donations are also welcome. Funds would be dispersed from PICADA since it already has non-profit status and a staff person will oversee expenditures. For more information contact Faith LaBarre at 246-7606.
TIBETAN RESETTLEMENT PROJECT—MADISON

Gordon Malaise requests $300 for the Tibetan Resettlement project—Madison to assist 100 Tibetan immigrant families resettle in Madison. The first 5 of those families arrived this month, having escaped with their lives from the tyranny of Red China. The project receives no government funding and therefore is entirely dependent on private contributions. For more information, call Skip Kindy at 255-5019.

GOODWILL RECREATION RESOURCE CENTER

Therese Ahlers requests $300 for the Goodwill Recreation Resource Center, a social services support program for adults with disabilities, to fund specialized transportation for persons in wheelchairs so that they can attend out of town activities. The GRC has had to fight hard for survival during the last 2 county budget processes and with the fiscal conservatives having attained a majority on the county board in the recent election, private funding has become even more necessary. For more information, call Therese Ahlers at 251-6610.

HEAD START GYMNASTICS

John Click requests $500 for 5 Head Start children to take 24 weeks of gymnastics classes from International Team Gymnastics. Head Start provides a supportive preschool classroom environment for disadvantaged children ages 4 to 5.
