President's Message

Guatemala, where I served as a volunteer, is known as the ‘Land of Eternal Spring’. Most days were a glorious blend of warm sunshine and fresh mountain air (except in the capitol, where it was a glorious blend of hot bus fumes and hot car exhaust). Now, it seems that I find myself in the land of eternal not quite spring - not quite anything. Mother Nature seems stuck on some kind of insidious April Fools Day joke. Someone, please fax her and let her know that we deserve better.

With March behind us, I want to express my sincere appreciation to all who were instrumental (or even just vocal or cerebral) in making the 35th Anniversary Celebration and Parents Brunch enormously successful. I am truly thankful to have had such giving and competent people step forward to make everything fall into place. I would be remiss not to mention a few key players.

Big thanks to Earl Bricker who worked diligently with the Peace Corps staff in Minneapolis and local media to create a wonderful media campaign celebrating the anniversary and promoting the experience. (He even stopped at nothing short of having the governor proclaim March as Peace Corps month in Wisconsin).

Likewise, thanks to Rose Anne Scott, Jo Thompson, Isabel Molina, and Hilda Mahon who converted the rather somber Pres House Main Lounge into a wonderful multicultural and festive ambiance for the anniversary party. The ethnic decor and cuisine were fabulous.

Finally, thanks to Shelley Goedken and Rose Anne Scott for a fine job of organizing the Parents Brunch. The food was great and I think the parents truly felt welcome. Having the Peace Corps Director address the group and answer questions was a real plus. I think it says something about our group that we of all groups would be chosen for a visit.

May promises to be a bit more like lean cuisine in terms of RPCV activity. Friday, May 3rd is our next meeting which will be a potluck hosted by the McQuestion’s. Looking ahead to June, please remember that June 22nd and 23rd is the camping trip at the Sauk Co. Park. For those and other events, see “Dates to Note”.

With that, I wish you and yours a spring of eternal hope and renewal.
Background:

At the April meeting a lengthy discussion was held as a result of a proposal submitted for funding an educational activity of a child of a group member with proceeds of calendar sales. As a result it was decided that a motion would be brought forward to the May meeting, such motion addressing the issue of the establishment of a policy establishing a framework for this type of funding proposal.

The following motion is therefore proposed for the May meeting with the intention that it be fully discussed by those in attendance and voted upon at that time.

MOTION:

It is the official policy of the RPCVs of Wisconsin-Madison Chapter that members and close relations will not directly benefit from the proceeds of calendar sales.

For the purpose of clarification:

a) close relations refers to spouse, children, siblings, parents or any other person legally designated as a dependant.

b) a direct benefit is one by which a quantifiable asset is accrued and is not normally meant transfer. This would include: activity resulting in educational credits and any form of legal tender.

Newsletter Policy: Since we are always trying to get new members, we will send three copies of our newsletter to anyone we think will be interested. After that, you have to pay to stay on our mailing list. Details can be found on the back page. One Exception: Contacts in other RPCV organizations can continue to receive our newsletter if they will send us theirs.

RPCY'S OF WISCONSIN/MADISON MINUTES
GENERAL MEETING OF THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1996

Eighteen were present and we had a quorum.

I. Li Cowell Proposal. Buck presented his proposal that we donate $500 to Li Cowell, daughter of Bob and Gina, so that she can go to Russia to help them with soil conservation. The question was raised whether it is appropriate to make donations to members or their families. Dean M. pointed out that by making such donations we are risking an ethical, moral and legal conflict of interest and, therefore, we should move now to adopt a policy of no donations that directly benefit members or their families. Deb, Dave A. and Barbara, while not necessarily disagreeing, stated that notice should be given in the newsletter before such an important decision is made and that a policy should be carefully crafted only after different points of view are heard. In the end, it was RESOLVED that a policy be developed to address the issue. Dean M. will draft a proposed policy (see elsewhere in this issue) and we will go from there.

Getting back to Li, Lori moved and Mike McQ seconded that we donate $200 to Li and that individual donations may make up the difference. The motion FAILED 7-6.

Finally, the original motion to donate $500 PASSED 8-7.

II. United Refugee Service. Andy Heidt, codirector of the United Refugee Service (URS) came to thank us for our Cardinal Bar Benefit donation and to give a brief presentation on the work of the URS. The URS provide resettlement, community assistance, employment and training, youth prevention programs, specialized services such as mental health treatment and cultural activities to assist the refugee population with issues that we all have, but which are exacerbated by cultural dislocation.

III. CALENDAR REPORT. Barbara reported that we are now in the production mode and that a draft budget has been prepared. Walt presented his motion that we appropriate $17,500 for donations allocated as follows:

- $8,000 for small donations at the giftawards
- $1,000 to cover last year's overdraft
- $3,000 for small donations throughout the year
- $5,000 for large donations (greater than $1,000)

Walt noted, however, that because we just approved the donation to Li, we must take $500 from somewhere since the overdraft is now $1500. Don moved and Deb seconded that we take $500 from the small donations throughout the year allocation and place it in the overdraft allocation. The motion FAILED 7-7. Next Dave moved and Walt seconded that we take the $500 from large donations instead. The motion PASSED 9-4. Finally, the original motion, as amended PASSED 13-0. As such, we will allocate our donation monies as set forth above, except that $1500 will go to cover the overdraft and $5,000 will go for large donations.

Next, Dean M. raised a couple of questions about some of the information set forth in the Calendar Committee Minutes in the newsletter:

1. We gave away 3,300 calendars to schools, approximately 20% of our inventory. At a production cost of about $2 each, that amounts to a donation of $6,600. Who approved this? Don, Sharon and Lori addressed Dean's concern by stating that, yes, at the beginning of each calendar cycle the committee proposes and the general meeting approves a print run that exceeds the number that we estimate we will sell because a large part of our mission is to get the calendar up in classrooms. Indeed, this year we did a 2nd print run solely to give to schools.

2. One thousand calendars are unaccounted for--WHAT'S GOING ON AROUND HERE? Again, Don, Sharon, Lori, Barbara, Walt and Prudence all spoke to attempt to address the issue. It is a legitimate question. Admittedly, we did not do a good job of controlling our inventory. We have to take responsibility and shape things up quicktime. Accordingly, Barbara will take this feedback to the committee and Earl, a fresh pair of eyes, will work with Rose Ann and Dean J. to ask the tough questions and come up with some answers.

IV. Reconnect. On Saturday night, May 25, at the Wil-Mar Center, we will invite the recently returned RPCY's in the area to a Film and Food Fest.

V. Social Plans. A. Our next meeting, Friday, May 3, at a POTLUCK, will be at Mike McQ and Liliana's house, 2210 Holister, 6:00 p.m. Poker afterward.
B. The CAMPING TRIP will be the same as last year, at Sauk County Park, weekend of June 23.
C. We decided to attend the Saturday afternoon matinee of Measure For Measure at the AMERICAN PLAYERS THEATRE on October 5. We need 20 people to get the group rate of $17. Sharon will organize.

VI. Recent Events. Cardinal Bar, Nom Party and Parent's Brunch were fabulously successful events. They couldn't have gone any better. Good job Chris on your public speaking--you upstaged the Director!

VII. Membership. Earl spoke. The newsletter said "pay your dues, pay your dues." There's more to it than that. We have to do more to bring back members who have fallen by the wayside. Earl will work with Walt and Susan on this.

VIII. Citizen's Advocacy. Lisa from Citizen's Advocacy spoke about the program. They need volunteers to become friends, mentors and advocates for persons with developmental disabilities who often are isolated from the community. Eric recently began volunteering and is excited about it. Due to the late hour, Lisa will speak again more at length at an upcoming meeting.

IX. Adjourn. And after that meeting we really needed a beer!

Sunday, April 14, 1996

RESENT: Walt Zeltner, Buck Trawicky, RoseAnn Scott, Kevin Nies, B. Chatterjee, Prudence arber

Meeting Began: 10:10 am

Feedback from April general body meeting: Points made by members asking for more careful tracking of calendar operations was noted. For the 1997 calendar new procedures are being implemented, e.g., numbering the boxes of calendars upon delivery and a system for reconciling the records more frequently. Furthermore, Treasurer RoseAnn Scott plans to publish account and distribution information in the newsletter regularly to keep the group informed. New staff will take over distribution, and we are still looking to fill some tasks—see advertisement for "collections handler" elsewhere in newsletter.

Marketing decisions: (1) In reviewing demand from various market sectors, including catalog vendors, Peace Corp-related organizations, individual buyers, and at least 2000 calendars designated as donations to schools, we set the print run size at 20,000 for the 1997 calendar; Barbara will complete arrangements with Straus. (2) We agreed to continue our policy that for each winning photo its photographer would be offered 25 calendars. (3) The 1997 prices will remain the same as last year, and the shipping costs will be checked to the new sales brochure can be prepared. (3) Prudence agreed to take over contacting other RPCV groups and Peace Corps recruiting offices for 1997 marketing. [Post meeting note: Follow-up meeting scheduled for 4/24.] (4) Barbara will contact NPCA re regional marketing and estimate for their 1997 calendar order; she will also price a glossy marketing piece showing all the photos. (5) In May we will discuss getting a world wide web home page for promotion.

Distribution: Al Weiner will take Kevin’s duties of coordinating the packing parties, stocking shipping supplies, postal meter, and UPS arrangements. We are clarifying the system for taking orders from the telephone hotline. Other tasks/positions will be announced. WE VERY MUCH THANK KEVIN for keeping the distribution operation so well organized—you will be missed when the work starts up again next fall.

At the next meeting on Sunday, May 5, discussion will include the calendar project schedules for production, marketing and distribution based on a draft timeline by Barbara, setting budgets for non-production categories, e.g., advertising, research, in-kind donations such as schools, etc., the collection management system, and marketing.

Dear Chris,

On behalf of United Refugee Services and the community we serve, we would like to thank you for your generous contribution. Individual thanks need to go out to the folks that helped create the fantastic buffet, sent out flyers, and made other arrangements for the event’s success. This gift will benefit our youth programs focusing on education and recreational activities.

This yearly benefit goes a long way in fulfilling the third goal of the Peace Corps. We are impressed by the continued dedication of the Returned Peace Corps Volunteer Group of Madison to the community we serve and the community at large.

ANOTHER FUN EVENT!!!

It's time to revive yet another RPCVs of WI tradition -- a trip to American Players Theater and a picnic in the park. We have group reservations for Saturday, October 5 for the 3 p.m. matinee of Measure for Measure. We'll gather around noon (or earlier for the heavy duty party animals and/or nature lovers) for a potluck picnic at nearby Tower Hill State Park.

The price per ticket is $16.10 (if we have a group of at least 20). You must let Sharon know by July 31 if you plan to attend, so that we can confirm reservations. Call her at 241-2392. After July 31, we can add to our group reservation subject to ticket availability. Details, direction, and other info will be in future newsletters.

RPCV NEWSLETTER NOTICE

RI CV Mike Tidwell's Peace Corps memoir, The Ponds of Kalambayi, will be released in paperback in May (Lyons and Burford $16.95). The book, which chronicles Tidwell's riveting two years as a fish volunteer in isolated Zaire, came out in 1990 in hardcover to considerable critical acclaim, winning several awards including the Paul Cowan award for best nonfiction book by an RPCV author. It's now widely considered a "classic" account of the Peace Corps experience. A must read. Tidwell's newest book, Amazon Stranger (Lyons and Burford, $22.95), will also be coming out in May. It's a true-life tale of an American expat who's gone native deep in the South American rain forest, becoming paramount chief of an endangered tribe of Indians while beating back the incursions of oil companies.

Presidents' Forum—Special Summer Meeting

In August, '96, there will be a unique gathering especially for you, a group leader. During the weekend of Aug. 16-18, the National Peace Corps Association will hold its Annual General Meeting (AGM), together with the annual Presidents' Forum. (Note: the Presidents' Forum meeting and AGM are usually at the Annual National Conference, but there is no conference in 1996). Tentative plans are to begin the week of Friday with a reception for all group reps and the NPCA Board and staff. Saturday will open with a report from the NPCA on activities, projects and growth in 1995-96. The group reps will then have a chance to meet with NPCA regional and Country of Service reps, as well as participate in NPCA committee meetings. The evening is planned to be an informal barbecue and dance. Sunday morning will be the AGM, followed by a rafting trip and picnic lunch. Directly after lunch the Board Meeting will begin, finishing up Monday afternoon. All participants are invited to attend and observe the Board Meeting.

This summer meeting will be unique in that group leaders from throughout the US will have the opportunity for full participation with each other, the NPCA Board and staff to formulate strategies, proposals and future focus and goals of the NPCA. Feedback from groups on successful local projects, networking with other leaders, camaraderie and just good fun will be the focus of this gathering.

All groups are invited to attend, so please send as many group leaders or members who would benefit from this meeting. Children and families are also welcome, as there are many activities at the meeting location.

The meeting will be held at the Shawnee Inn & Golf Resort in the town of Shawnee-on-Delaware, PA. The Inn is approximately 1 1/2 hour drive from the Newark airport. The Inn is a family resort with golf, tennis, canoeing, rafting, tubing, swimming, horseback riding, hiking, etc. There is a Playhouse which will feature Fiddler on the Roof. NPCA Board Member Ginny Kirkwood has arranged for an incredible rate of approximately $83 per person (per night, double occupancy), including three meals a day!

So, mark your calendars now to attend the 1996 Annual General Meeting and Presidents' Forum on August 16-18, 1996. You should be receiving registration information some time in April.

Newsletter Subscription Information

All RPCVW, Inc. members receive the newsletter on payment of annual dues shown below. To avoid record-keeping hassles, we would prefer that our members pay through December of the year of joining ($1.25 per month for each month through December), then pay for a full year membership at that time. Reduced rates are available for those in extreme financial circumstances.

You can also join the National Peace Corps Association through us by paying a further $20.00. We strongly encourage all members to join the National Association, which provides us a way to affect national issues.
