MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Searching through some old files, I found the notes that Buck Trawicky had scribed after our group retreat at Upham Woods in May 1984. For those who participated in the retreat, you may recall that we had several sessions in which we talked a lot about our Peace Corps experiences, and especially what we enjoyed about the RPCVs of Wisconsin. I offer as a concluding statement to my term in office this paraphrasing of what Buck said I said. The sentiments I expressed then still hold true today:

"It’s the type of people that you are that is so pleasing. Unique, resourceful, independent. You are an inspiration when I’m down and drained. You are familiar with accomplishing things in stressful situations. As a group, we get things done. We are powerful out of all proportion to our size. We can go from thoughts to deeds. We have cracked out of apathy and frustration. We are a group committed to making the world better."

Thank you all for your individual contributions to help RPCVs of Wisconsin help make the world better.

- Bob Merideth
28 introduced themselves, including 5 newguys. Announcements were made, but you can't know what they were.

We have $908 in our operating account, and $2268 in our gift account. Of this, $1575 is money paid for Cancun raffle tickets to benefit Sira (this is the perfect time to visit Cancun: no hordes of tourists), and the balance is for calendar expenses. Regarding the calendar, we have spent $9050 so far, and taken in $1600. The winning raffle ticket will be picked on Friday the 23rd of September, so buy tickets while you can: Brent McNabb knows all.

Local calendar sales are coordinated by John Click. So far 3 stores have them, Shakti, Orange Tree, and Brown's. The public schools newsletter will run an ad for them when we give them one. There will be a working session soon on sales.

The nominations committee reported that there will indeed be candidates for each office this year: Pres, Roseann; VP, Hank; Treas, Wade; Sec, Buck.

The Speakers Bureau has given 7 of the 10 billable talks we contracted for with PC, and won't get the other 3 done in time for this budget year, which mildly disappoints the Minn. office. We'll do better next year, and only contract for 5, and then for 5 more in July. Hank agreed to chair the Bureau, to applause.

Have you all gotten your request for a piece of prose expressing your Peace Corps experience? The Nat'l Council wants these for a vigil of readings as part of a memorial service for JFK, who was killed by the bad guys on Nov 22, 25 years ago. Do write this; I did, and felt high for hours afterwards. Moreover, we should do our own local ceremony in the State Capitol on the 22nd.

The Pig Roast will have been done to a turn by the time you read this.

And Pat Malone is doing fine so far, which makes us feel very good.

The Goods are moving into a new house, and would appreciate help on a repair weekend, Sept 25-26. 233-7373.

The Nat'l Council has a grant of $80,000 from AID for development education projects. They solicit proposals from groups with good ideas, as for instance in the schools or with community businesses. Grants of as much as $5000 are possible.

Upcoming meeting times:
Friday Oct 7 (potluck 6:00; mtg 7:30, Muffy's, 2975 Rimrock Rd. Mon Nov 7, 7:00 Union South (271-0998)
Tue Dec 6
Wed Jan 11 (?)

Oxfam asks if we want to cosponsor a talk on India, by an Indian, on Oct 26. Yes, we do.
Laura reports that the Cambodian refugees in town want to develop cooperative moneymaking projects, and need help discovering and cultivating the right markets, and solving problems as they rear up. Call her if you want to help, at 233-7373.

Don has a new address: 14 Granby Cir., 53704. 249-3360 (h); 266-7133 (w) after Oct 1.

And Buck, for the Adventure Committee, suggests that we go camping on the shores of Hook Lake, the wildest place in Dane County. It's especially fine under a full moon, with the panthers baying, and the aurochs snorting in disbelief.

* * * * * * * * NEXT MEETING! * * * * * * * * * *

!! PLEASE NOTE THAT MEETING DATES HAVE BEEN CHANGED !!

Our next meeting will be FRIDAY, Oct. 7! As is typical of our Friday meetings, this one will be a potluck. We will meet at Meredith Green's place, 2975 Rimrock Rd. (see accompanying map). Dinner will start being served at about 6 PM. Business meeting starts at 7:30.

Future meetings are scheduled for:

Monday, November 7
Tuesday, December 6
Wednesday, January 11
AFRICAN FILM FESTIVAL

Wednesdays: Sept. 7, 14, 21 and Oct. 5, 8:00 p.m.,
Fredric March PlayCircle, Memorial Union
Thursday: Sept. 29, 8:00 p.m., Rm. 109, Union South

The Ribbon*
(20 min.) Finalist, 1988 American Film & Video Festival
A film which could only be made by a South African woman with access into the joys and despair of living and fighting for justice in the country. It offers a perspective that is often not seen, that these are women in South Africa, many of whom are white, who are conscious to make a contribution to the struggle for justice and peace.

Malda and Madams*
(52 min.)
Like Hemingway’s powerful film shot in South Africa examining the tragedy of apartheid through the complex relationship between black domestic workers and white employers.

Wozza Albert!
(50 min.)
Unusual national hit play written and performed by South African Payne Sibanda and performed in an African village.

Tree of Survival
(20 min.) A film by Abdellatif Ben Ammar. Produced by the United Nations. Finalist, 1985 American Film Festival
What has happened in the Saharan region of North Africa in the 15 years since drought and starvation were on the cover pages of the world press? This spatially focused film tells us that although the problems on the borders of the Sahara are no longer in the headlines, the ever encroaching dunes refuse to go away.

Banguza Tinbilla
(50 min.) A music video by Ron Hall.
Two players of handmade marimbas (Tinbilla) and their dancers perform an exciting and moving celebration in homage to FRELIMO and the revolution in Mozambique. The concert is held in the remote town of Banga, in the former region of Zavala, Mozambique.

Emergency
(101 min.) 1971, Ousmane Sembene, Dr., Senegal, Subtitle
An historical epic from one of Africa's most renowned filmmakers. The story depicts the clash between Franco colonialists and the Diolas, a mystical tribe.

Faces of Women
(110 min.) 1987, Desire Guaw, Dr., Ivory Coast
This moving winning feature explores the position of women in modern-day Africa through two stories. In the first a young woman strikes back at her husband by having an affair with his playboy brother in the second a market woman attempts to establish her dried fish business in a man dominated society.

*Co-sponsored by Women's Film Series
Sponsored by African Language & Literature Department, W-A Film, Ideas and Issues and Cross Cultures Interest Area

There will be a discussion group after each of these films. If there are any RPCV’s from the specific country, or region where these films were made, they are very much encouraged and invited to attend and talk about their experiences.

EDITOR'S CORNER:

1. IT'S TIME FOR A NEW MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORY! And you'll be surprised at its length. If I had run my usual monthly update, it would have been almost as large as the last directory! There is a reason. The National Council of RPCVs allows people to join NCRPCV and designate a local group which they can also join. The local group then receives a membership fee for each person who designates that local group.

This sounds fine in theory but leads to some problems in implementation for both the National Council and ourselves. The National Council is finally working out its problems, as are we, so we now have an idea of how many people have joined us through the National Council. About 50, as best we can tell!!

I must apologize to those of you who joined us through the National Council several months ago and who have not heard anything from us until now. Hopefully our problems are behind us.

For our active, local members who use this directory extensively - I have included address changes for 10 people in this directory, as well as the Cowell's phone number. I would suggest discarding earlier directories and using this one exclusively.

2. NEW READERS - I am interested in receiving material for publication in this newsletter from our members. This could include personal memoirs (if they aren't too long), recipes, newspaper articles of interest, artwork, etc. Any submissions should be sent to the address on the back page. Remember - I have limited time to spend preparing the newsletter, so I must rely on our members to help me put out an interesting publication.

3. Membership - I'm still looking for someone willing to take on the responsibility of sending new members and prospective members an introductory letter and short history of our group. This task should not involve too much work since the letter and history have already been written and simply need to be updated. If anyone is willing, please contact me (Walt Zeltner) at 835-3083 (home) most evenings and weekends. On weekdays during the day, it's best to call 262-2470. You may have to leave a message.

4. A note for those of you interested in computers and development education. The Oct. '88 issue of "incider" has a blurb describing a new computer program - "Who'll Save Abacaxi?". It is designed for students in grades 7 - 12, letting them be president of a hypothetical third-world country and deal with problems such as illiteracy, unemployment and overpopulation. Not much more information is given, however.

5. Deadline for submission of material for the next newsletter is Monday, October 17.

Other RPCV organizations have our permission to use any material of interest in this newsletter.

MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORY:

This is an attempt to publish some basic information about our FULLY-PAID members (this is not our complete mailing list) in a concise form. I hope this info is accurate, but I am missing some things and I do make mistakes. Please check your listing and, if you have additions or corrections to make, let me know [Walt Zeltner (H): 835-3083 (W): 262-2470]. I'd like to keep this as up-to-date as possible.

Also, if your address or phone number changes, please get the new information to me. Phone numbers are especially important for those of you on our phone tree.
On the back of this page you'll find an UPDATED phone tree for RPCVW's Madison members. Comments:

1. This phone tree should enable us to contact other active members fairly quickly. However, don't use it as a way to inform people about all those neat events you stumble across every week! THAT SHOULD BE DONE BY WRITING UP A NOTICE FOR THE NEWSLETTER! I view the phone tree as a mechanism for use in emergencies, such as changes in plans for a group event or spur-of-the-moment parties. It shouldn't be used too much because, if it is used correctly, it can be very time consuming for people at the top. I know this from personal experience.

2. Please remember that a phone tree is only useful for passing on information from one person to another, not in situations where a dialog is needed. So anyone who wants to pass information along via the phone tree should write down all the necessary info before starting the process. This way you'll be less likely to have a garbled version arrive at the end of the tree. Also, please remember to give your name, number, and a rough idea of your schedule so that people can call you if they have questions.

3. All local members are not automatically included in this phone tree. If you want to be included and are not, CALL KAREN at 256-2141! She will fit you in somewhere. If you don't like your position on the tree, that may also be changeable.

4. How does it work? You have a hot announcement, so you write it down (as in #2) and call Karen. She calls the people immediately under her to pass on the announcement. They will call the people on the level below them, who in turn will contact people on the last level. That's obvious. What is not obvious is what should happen if she can't get through to Buck, for example? Then she has to contact the people he should have contacted. If she can't get one of them, she has to contact their people on the last level. Similarly, if you can't get to her with a message, you'll have to contact the people below her to set things in motion. Since a lot of us are often out of town or hard to reach, this will make the phone tree more difficult to use. That's why I'm against it's being used too often.

5. We all need current phone numbers for people to get this to work. SO! Every one in the phone tree should check each newsletter for phone number changes for others in the tree. If your phone number changes, please let me know so I can pass on that information.

NEWSLETTER POLICY:
Since we're always trying to get new members, I'll send three copies of our newsletter to anyone we think will be interested. After that, you have to pay to stay on our mailing list. Details can be found on the back page. ONE EXCEPTION: contacts in other RPCV organizations can continue to receive our newsletter if they will send us theirs.

OXFAM-America Notes:

The OXFAM-America student group next meets on Wednesday, October 12 in Room 350, Science Hall at 7pm. RPCVs are invited to attend. The topic of the evening will be to plan the "Fast for a World Harvest" and volunteers are needed to help.

RPCVs of Wisconsin is co-sponsoring a speaker that the OXFAM-America student group is bringing to Madison. Ravi Khanna, field director for OXFAM-America, will speak on Wednesday, October 26 at 7:30pm in the Memorial Union. His topic will be: "War, Hunger, and Development: OXFAM-America's Experience in Central America, Southern Africa, and Southeast Asia."
The founder of the Peace Corps, John F. Kennedy, died 25 years ago this November 22.

When he asked a generation of Americans what they might do for their country, they responded in the thousands. His concept of the Peace Corps captured the imagination and energy of service-minded Americans then, and it continues to do so now.

In the past 27 years over 120,000 Americans have answered Kennedy’s challenge serving in 94 countries around the globe. No one who participated was left unaffected by the experience.

Today Returned Peace Corps Volunteers represent a unique legacy of the Kennedy years. Woven back into the fabric of home town communities across the nation, they continue to keep the spirit of their commitment alive through their work in development education. “Promoting a greater understanding on the part of Americans of other people” was one of the goals Kennedy articulated in his 1961 legislation.

In that same spirit the National Council of Returned Peace Corps Volunteers is sponsoring a Commemorative Service marking the first quarter century of JFK’s passing by helping educate our fellow citizens about what life in the Peace Corps meant to those who served.

We will remember the founder of the Peace Corps through an event called the Journals of Peace.

All volunteers who served in the Peace Corps are invited to submit a passage from their letters home, their Peace Corps journals or their best recollection about the single experience that crystallizes what the Peace Corps meant to them.

We plan to have a vigil of considerable length prior to the beginning of the Service.

Those wishing to participate must submit their manuscript, not to exceed three minutes reading time, or 500 words, to the National Council Office in Washington D.C. no later than Oct. 15, 1988.

Time slots will be allotted on a strict first-come, first-serve basis. The vigil will end at 12:30 p.m. on November 22.

At 1 p.m. Sargent Shriver and Bill Moyers will lead a special service at St. Matthew’s Cathedral, the site of President Kennedy’s funeral. All Journals of Peace participants are invited.

Some Volunteers might like their message to convey what they would tell the late President about their Peace Corps experience.

Other RPCVs may prefer to speak about what most clearly symbolized the learning experience in another culture.

The vigil is presently scheduled to continue through the night. If an RPCV has health reasons making this impossible please include the information on the enclosed form. Time slots will be reserved for these RPCVs.

There will be no editing of manuscripts, but we must have them ahead of time. If an RPCV cannot attend, please submit your manuscript for others to read.

A book of the Journals of Peace will be published pending necessary funding.

The National Council plans to videotape the Journals of Peace. These too will be available pending funding.

Please submit the enclosed form with your manuscript as soon as possible.

It will be necessary for the National Council to reconfirm your attendance in early November. An unbroken chain of RPCVs sharing their personal experiences in this unique fashion will create a vigil paying tribute to the special legacy of John Kennedy who inspired thousands of us to serve the developing world.

We want as many RPCVs as possible to participate. Please share your story with the rest of us.
