Hello all,

I hope this newsletter finds you well and in good spirits.

As we come into the fall, we would like to have a potluck event for all RPCV of WI - Madison members. Old timers and just joined alike. The event will be a resurrection of our traditional "Pig Roast" and will most likely be in late September at a nearby member’s house. Look for details soon, or give me a call (Steve, 608-257-2712) if I have piqued your interest.

We will be donating calendar proceeds at our September 17th meeting to projects submitted to the group. Projects to be submitted, must make it to our newsletter editor, Lee Row, and the small donations coordinator, Walt Zeltner, by August 30 in order to be considered for funding at the September meeting.

Finally, a plug...We have a new website! If you haven’t already checked it out, go to www.rpcvmadison.org. There you can find information about our international calendar, how to submit projects to our group for funding, old newsletters, and what we are up to. Big thanks to Burt Preston for putting this great site together and taking care of ongoing updates!

See you around.

Cheers,

Steve

Volunteers Still Needed!

There are still fabulous opportunities for members to meet and greet the public, talk about Peace Corps, sell our 2004 International Calendar, and have a great time this summer.

The next opportunity is to sit at the WI Network for Peace & Justice table at the Farmers’ Market, Saturday, August 16th. We can’t sell calendars, but can enjoy the scene & pass out brochures.

And perhaps the best chance to bask in the admiration of all is the Willy Street Fest, Sunday, September 21st. Troy has staked out a shady spot in the middle of the action for us to sell calendars and mingle with the natives.

We’ll circulate sign-ups at meetings or call Troy at 245.9964 to volunteer.

Thanks to Kate Vieira, Dan Rosenthal, Ken Coffeen, Sharon Isensee, Marc Brand, Kristie Torres, Tom Brod, Prudence Barber, and Rochelle Goedken (our fearless calendar leader) for volunteering at the Alwood Summerfest on August 2.
Calendar News

We didn't have a calendar meeting in July, but here's what's been happening.

Production
More than 38,000 2004 calendars were produced and we had an unveiling party in late June at Tom Brodd's (aka "Pretty Boy"), to celebrate. About 30 people dodged the scattered showers to enjoy the view from his front porch, including one of the 2004 winning photographers and an RPCV/Ghana friend of Tom's.

Marketing/Distribution
Calendars are available to current members of RPCVs of Wisconsin at $4.00 each through the September general meeting (usually the third Wed. of the month), after which they will cost $5.00 each (still a great deal, but plan ahead and buy early). The only other time that we sell calendars at $4.00 each is at the calendar packing party (see below for details).

Calendars are available:

West
Sophia Zermuehlen 233-7886
Lee and Rick Row 232-9065

East
Prudence Barber 251-0852
Rose Ann Scott 241-0845

Calendar Committee Meeting
Calendar meetings are held on the 4th Tuesday of the month. This is usually, but not always, the last Tuesday of the month. Please call Rochelle or Prudence to confirm.

The August meeting will be on Tuesday, August 26th, 7 p.m. at Prudence Barber's, 1050 Jenifer St. At this meeting we need to decide the level of funds we can make available to for the special September Gift-Away. All calendar production expenses should be in and we should have a good idea of our financial situation.

Normally the calendar committee allocates funds only once each year, in February or March. This year, because of procedural problems, we voted to add to the Gift-Away fund for projects to be voted on at the September General Meeting.

Activities
I've been trying to set up a tour of the Suttle-Straus distribution center. I will let members of the calendar committee know the date/time when it has been arranged. Possible dates include August 14th, 15th, 21st, or 22nd. I would especially like the people directly involved in distribution to attend and all others are welcome. It could be kind of fun and educational. If you'd like to tour Suttle-Straus, please let Rochelle know by calling 243-0298.

Calendar Packing Party
The calendar packing party is scheduled for Friday, September 19th starting at 6:30 p.m. until about 9:30 p.m. It will be held at Alan Weiner's (Wonderful) warehouse on Hwy 14 in Middleton (same as last year). Directions will appear in next month's newsletter. As usual, we will order pizzas from Glass Nickel and provide soft drinks. The warehouse is cold beer-enabled (it has a fridge) and packers are welcome to bring supplies to enjoy with their pizza.

FYI: Members have been known to gather for drinks after the packing. Please call Rochelle for details on packing or related activities.

Thanks to all who helped produce the 2004 calendar. I have already heard several unbiased comments about how beautiful the calendar is and how it keeps getting better every year.

Rochelle Goedken

From the Calendarmail@yahoo.com mailbox:

Dear Fellow RPCVer,

My name is Drew Ciccarello (RPCV-Romania). A few months back I wrote asking for volunteers to be interviewed for my dissertation. At that time I was looking for K-12 teachers. I had a medical set-back, and my committee also had a change of focus, so I'm back to square one. Now I am looking for instructors/professors who currently teach at the college/university level, and have lived abroad for at least one year. If you know of anyone in your group who might be willing to assist, would you please either forward this e-mail on, or request that they contact me at:

ciccarell1@marshall.edu

Thank you for your assistance!

Drew

I got this e-mail address from Jane Juimaleh at the UW. I am looking for someone to help me learn Haitian Creole. Is there anyone among the peace corps volunteers who might be able to help me find a tutor? I live in Madison.

Sincerely,
Gale Petersen
peterseng@charter.net

Dear Lee,
The calendar came, just in time for me to show it off before I leave on Tuesday. It is great. I like the focus on Afghanistan, of course, and the best picture is that of Niger, so seldom seen and thought of. Good job to everyone.

Barb Settles
and thanks a bunch

Did You Know?
- Calendars are on sale for RPCVs of WI-Madison for $4.00 through September, after which they cost $5.00. Members are selling calendars, are listed in the Calendar News.
- Our Website has exciting new information and features thanks to our Web Master, Burt Preston. Check it out and send Burt anything you’d like him to post!
- Donation Proposals for September: We discussed whether the calendar committee has set aside more money for donating, as was decided this spring. The calendar committee will make its decision and let us know. If you have a proposal, submit it to Walt for publication in the August newsletter for a vote at the September general meeting.
- Requests for Payments from the group should go through and be approved by the president. Please do not approach the treasurer for money before speaking with the president. We had some recent confusion about this and hope to avoid future difficulties. Our current president is Steve Elmore sbelmore@usa.net.

Can You Help?
- The Wisconsin Network for Peace and Justice has a table at the farmers’ market every Saturday. The RPCVs will sit with them and promote peace by providing outreach to the community and information about the Peace Corps on August 16 from 9:00-12:00. If you can sit at the table for half an hour or more, contact Steve Elmore sbelmore@usa.net.
- Atwood Summerfest is Saturday, August 2. If you can sit at the table for an hour or more, contact Steve Elmore sbelmore@usa.net.
- The NPCA Conference will take place August 5-8, 2004 in Chicago. The RPCVs of Chicago would like us to help organize an event there. We will be in charge of a reception the opening night of Thursday, August 5. We need a volunteer or two to coordinate these efforts. If you are interested in coordinating or otherwise volunteering, both beforehand and at the conference, contact Steve Elmore sbelmore@usa.net. More details to come.
- Newsletter submissions, especially of photos, are requested by our editor, Lee Row. Please send photos, stories, information, etc. to worldrootsnews@yahoo.com.

What’s Happening?
- Pig Roast? Earlier this year we discussed the “pig roast.” Steve will contact Mike Read, our usual host, to discuss scheduling of this event.
Attention All Members!

Back by popular demand, we’re starting the effort to publish an updated RPCV Madison Membership Directory. If you’re a dues-paying member who regularly receives this newsletter, you’ll automatically receive a directory in the mail when it’s ready. If your membership dues have expired or are about to expire, however, you’re in jeopardy of not receiving one. Please check the mailing label on your latest newsletter to see your membership expiration date.

If anything about your membership information was incorrect or omitted in the 2001 Directory, or if you’re a new member, now is your chance to provide updates for the new directory. Here is the information that will be included:
- Name
- Email Address
- Dates of Service
- Mailing Address
- Home/Work Phone #’s
- Country of Service

Please send your information to Brad Hinkfuss: 217 Corry St., Madison, WI 53704 (jambrad@chorus.net), (608) 242-9573. If for any reason you don’t wish to be included, or want certain information omitted, tell me and I will be glad to comply. This information will not be shared with any outside person or group.

Project Title: Micro-Enterprise Loans for Displaced Colombians

PROJECT DESCRIPTION: (About 100 words)

RPCVSF established The Colombia Project (TCP) in 2000 as a web-based pilot to provide aid to displaced persons, while strengthening grassroots organizations. Volunteer labor was used in developing the web-site and in translating projects. Through a partnership with Organizacion de Desarrollo Regional Integrado (ODRI), TCP supported 14 small ($300) projects in the past year. Repayments to date from those no-interest loans supported 4 additional projects. After witnessing the TCP-ODRI partnership, 4 other NGOs approached ODRI with projects, bringing the project inventory to 113. Repaid loans are split 50/50 with the local NGO. To date, TCP’s portion has been reinvested in loans.

To minimize costs, TCP uses ‘repayment’ as the test of success, although quarterly reports are also required until the loan is repaid. Reports keep the donor informed, force the Colombian NGO and recipient to evaluate progress, and provide examples for future loan recipients. Quarterly reports can be viewed at www.colombiaproject.org under WHAT’S NEW, by clicking on the project number.

With the increased activity, ODRI wants to hire a Colombian in-country to enter projects into the computer, maintain payment records, and e-mail projects and reports to Miami. This full time person will earn approximately $2000 per year. TCP requests $1000 from Wisconsin RPCV, to be matched by TCP repaid loan proceeds, to cover the first year cost of the administrative assistance. After the 1st year, the volume of supported projects will cover that salary, as the project moves towards self-sustainability.

Project Title  WRC Workers’ Council Kick-off

Project Description: (About 100 words)

The Interfaith Coalition for Worker Justice has established a Workers’ Rights Center on Madison’s Southside. The WRC provides a place where workers can learn their rights and how to advocate for themselves in the workplace.

Modeled on similar workers’ centers nationwide, the WRC will be governed by a Workers’ Council composed primarily of low-wage and immigrant workers. After months of outreach and recruitment, the WRC is ready to formally launch the Workers’ Council.

We are requesting $800 to cover expenses for a community-wide Workers’ Council Kick-off event: $75 for space rental, $225 for refreshments, $150 for other materials and $350 for staff time to organize and publicize the event.

Project Title  Books without Borders

PROJECT DESCRIPTION: (About 100 words)
Mary Ann Feutz is a Peace Corps volunteer located in a village near Lesotho, South Africa. She is working to establish a library. She has opened the library with an initial donation of 200 books. She did not seek money from a Peace Corps partnership due to the cumbersome process and lack of guarantee of the funding. I would like to help Mary Ann, with your monetary assistance, to further develop the newly established library. I have completed one book drive at Sherman Middle School collecting over 200 books and would like to send those and complete an additional book drive during the school year. I have also talked with a teacher of Sherman 7th grade students about completing a photo journal of their “world” and exchange them with young adolescent students in Lesotho, South Africa. The journal exchange would involve creating a photo journal and sharing information about what it means to be a young adolescent in their city. This would require the purchase of disposable cameras, processing fees and shipping costs.

Project Title: Sterna Welfare Society __________

Project Description: (About 100 words)

This project is a school setup in India by an Indian woman to provide education and training to children (boys and girls) and young adults would not otherwise have the opportunity to get an education. The school is located in a very poor section of Dehli. The women who started the school is paying for the costs of the school out of her own pocket. There are 2-3 teachers and 30 plus students. The school age children are learning the basics and the young adults are also learning skills that will help them earn a living.

Chaculá Clinic Pharmacy Project

Organization/ Contact Person:
Kickapoo Valley Guatemalan Accompaniement Project (KGAP)
Connie Vanderhyden, KGAP Coordinator
E9048 Pierce Hill Rd
Viroqua, WI 54665
(608) 637-8547

Goals:
1. Employ trained pharmacy health promoters who administer medicines and maintain a stocked inventory.
2. Make use of pharmacy built by a Guatemalan organization called CEIBA (Association for the Promotion and the Development of the Community).
3. Cultivate the pharmacy to be a strong avenue of income for the clinic to develop and grow.
4. Build confidence in the health program committee, the patient population, and funding organizations that the clinic is a viable resource for health care with a steadfast supply of medicines.
5. Emphasize the importance of good health and prevention of sickness by investing money in the clinic.
6. Have the clinic be a source of economic prosperity for community development.

Project Work Plan:
1. In 2003, the Chaculenses established a formal health association composed of seven members from Chaculá. The association’s purpose is to employ a plan that ensures health services are available to the 23 surrounding communities of Chaculá. Donations received from the RPCVs of Wisconsin will be managed by the health association to employ a year round support staff for the clinic.
2. KGAP will commit to a campaign to raise matching funds if CEIBA funds are seen as unsatisfactory matching funds.
3. The KGAP accompanier is responsible for updating KGAP on a bi-monthly basis. The Peace Corp will receive these updates from KGAP regarding how the money is implemented in the pharmacy.

Budget:

Conveying the Funding:
1) Please write and send check to:
   KGAP
   E9048 Pierce Hill Rd
   Viroqua, WI 54665

2) Connie Vanderhyden, KGAP Coordinator, will cash the check and give the money to the next Chaculá accompanier. The money will be hand carried to Chaculá by the accompanier and given to the Chaculá Community Assembly. The assembly has established a formal health association in charge of distributing money properly to and making decisions on the growth and preservation of the clinic. The Network in Solidarity with the People of Guatemala (NISGUA), of which KGAP is a regional affiliate, recommended this process of delivering money. In the past, money granted by the Return Peace Corp Volunteers of Wisconsin-Madison has been successfully delivered in this manner.
