President's Message

Waving Good-bye and Thank-you to Jim Smith for brief, but exemplary stint as president for this group, I now sit down at my squeaky typewriter and marvel at the size of these big shoes I now try to fill.

Thanks to the many who, for untold hours, wrestled with the scripts and played with the electronic gizmos to ensure the success of Carol Bellamy's visit to Madison. As many of you know, the next big visit will be made by Chick Dambach, president and CEO of the NPCA, to the Last (?) Family Brunch on Sunday, April 17th.

Why Last? After years of enthusiastic and insightful planning of this worthwhile activity, Helene Pesche is ready to step down from the responsibility. Are you interested in orchestrating this event in the future? If so, please contact Helene. Without hard-working folk to plan this brunch, we could see an end to this era.

Consider also spending some time with Madison children at the Allied-Dunn Community Center through the Global Education Committee. Set dates include April 1, April 15, and May 6. See Sandy Moss or Dave Wakely for details.

And don't any of you forget the potluck meeting at Conrad's place on April 8th. I'll be looking to load my plate high with hot and spicy food for which this group is so well known. Get Cookin'!

I. Introductions of All Present - Jim Smith

II. Introduction of Agenda - Jim Smith

III. Kid-to-Kid Program - Matt Baker

Matt Baker, a UW student and Randall School volunteer, is looking for schools and children in other countries to do establish exchanges with. Contact him at 257-6456, or contact Mark Wagler, a Randall teacher, at Kid-to-Kid, Rm. 103, Randall School, 1802 Regent St., Madison, WI 53705 U.S.A., Internet: madismw@wisc.edu.org.

IV. Treasurer's Report - Jim Smith/Don Sauer

(Minute taker's disclaimer: I can't vouch for the complete accuracy of the following information due to the fact that I am number-impaired.) Due to the reorganization of the books that is currently underway, exact figures are unavailable. Here are the approximate figures: Calendar Savings - $4,000; Calendar Community Services - $3,000; Checking & Savings - $1,000; Calendar Account - $38,727.25 (+ money owed to us in the amount of $2,898.94 for a total of $41,766.05).

The accountants have a $4,000 discrepancy between what we have in the calendar account(s) and what the books say we should have. Don thinks the error occurred when he transferred the books to his computer. The accountants and Don are working on clearing this up.

We should be able to save $24,000 for seed money and still have about $14,000 for the giveaway.

The exact amount available for the giveaway will be determined by the International Calendar Steering Committee on March 13 and published in the April Newsletter.

Meredith asked if we could get a report of how much our giving has increased in proportion to our expenses. Don will work on this when his computer regains its health. Last year we earned about $11,174 and gave away about $5,500. The balance (approximately $5,500) was retained for a reserve fund.

V. Membership - Sandy Moss

Pay your dues! No more free newsletters to those whose memberships have expired.

VI. Global Education - Sandy Moss/Dave Wakeley

We will be running an after school program for Southeast Asian and other children at the Allied-Duna's Marsh Community Center on the first and third Fridays of the month from 2:30 - 4 p.m. Contact Sandy or Dave if you're interested in participating.

VII. Re-Connecting RPCV's - Sharon Lewandowski

We have received a grant to be one of five groups to pilot this project. NPCA will train us in late spring or summer. In return we must conduct two workshops a year for two years.

VIII. Student Organizations Contest - Sandy Moss

We vetoed applying for a $100 exemplary student organization award because: A) We already know we're exemplary. B) The other student organizations probably need the money worse than we do; and C) We don't want to encourage scrutiny of our shaky student organization status.

IX. Other PC Stuff - Erik Jensen

Erik is starting an E-Mail (sp/) tree. (This is another subject area that yours truly knows nothing about.) Get your number or address or account or whatever to him so you can be included. Kudos to everyone who helped with the recruiting events last week.

X. Calendar - Don Sauer/Barbara Chatterjee

The photos have been selected and we're working on the printers' bids. The motion re: newsletter funding (see the March Newsletter) passed with one abstention.

XI. Distribution of Calendar Proceeds - Walt Zeltner

The Steering Committee will let us know how much we can give away (see above). Requests for donations must be made by mid-April on an official form which is available from Walt. A giveaway committee will meet in May to make recommendations. The group will vote on the donation request at the June General Meeting. For more information and to volunteer for the giveaway committee contact Walt.

XII. Cardinal Bar Benefit - Walt Zeltner

We made $393. We voted to contribute $7 of the group's funds to make it an even $400. $200 will go to the American Red Cross for Midwest flood relief and $200 will go to Oxfam. America for Napa flood relief. Peter Joyce will get the checks out.

Walt has extra plates and other party-ware if anyone needs them for an RPCV function.

XIII. Freeze for Food - Don Sauer

We still have a $25 gift certificate made out to Oxfam from Land's End. Deb will take care of it.

XIV. Winter Retreat - Jim Smith

The two cabins at Camp Lucerne overflowed with 25 grown-ups and 11 kids. Mike did a fine job of food. We liked the new pay-if-you-come system and some people even got beds. We must be a well-fed group because no one showed up for the meals.

XV. Carol Bellamy's Visit - Jim Smith

Everybody come. You'll get to see Carol and/or Grainger Hall. We voted to pay for cheese and crackers for 100 people at $1.00/person from the general fund (we have to use Grainger's food service and to spend up to $250 for music from the calendar community services fund. Jim is negotiating with a music group whose name means 'umbrella' in Spanish to donate part of whatever we pay them to Centro Hispano.

XVI. Benefit - Gordon Malaise

Baron Bliss Party
Bring tapes, beer, snacks.

XVII. Family Brunch - Chic Dambach has tentatively agreed to speak.

XVIII. Ruppe Award - The International Calendar Steering Committee will consider applying on behalf of the group.

XIX. April Potluck - Conrad Weifenbach (sp?) graciously offered his pad. It's on Rodeney Court off of Monona Bay.

XX. Announcements -

The Brands - Marc, Jo, Hank, and Benjamin are returning to the States this summer.
ATTENTION!!ATTENTION!!ATTENTION!!

AZTEC HARVEST is a brand name which has been registered by the coffee growers cooperatives in Mexico which have been established with the help and guidance of Ashoka Fellows. Steep n Brew coffee now features a coffee with the AZTEC HARVEST name in it. Ben’s Jerry’s Ice Cream now has AZTEC HARVEST Coffee Ice Cream as one of their flavors. Both of these products are available at Woodman’s in Madison and, presumably wherever Steep n Brew sells bulk coffee and wherever Ben’s Jerry’s Ice Cream is sold. Keep an eye out for the AZTEC HARVEST brand and support the work of Ashoka with the purchase of these fine products.

MORE STUFF from Walt Zelner:

1. Calendar Proceeds: At our last meeting, we agreed to the following timetable for distributing the Small Projects portion of the proceeds of the 1994 Calendar:
   April 30: Receipt of all donation request forms;
   May: Meeting of Calendar Proceeds Subcommittee to recommend projects and funding levels (We need a host for this meeting. Participation is open to all, but I’d like to know in advance if you plan to participate);
   June: Publication of Subcommittee recommendations in newsletter;
   July: Vote on distribution of proceeds at monthly meeting;
   August: Distribution of checks. Peter Joyce and I will have to meet, which may be tough given our schedules.

2. Membership Info: I was talking with Julie Olson at the last meeting. She said that she had joined the National Peace Corps Assn. but was not receiving her copy of “WorldView” magazine. We had a similar problem a couple of years ago. Sue Ueberhors of the NPCA told me that one possibility was that some post office branches were simply not delivering all their second and lower class mail. That happened in Cleveland. If you are in the 53704 Zip Code and are not receiving your “WorldView” magazine, one step you could take is to contact the 53704 post office branch and ask them what is going on at their end. Hopefully, if they hear from several people, they will start performing. You should also contact Sandy Moss. If she has several names, she can contact the NPCA to verify that they have the correct membership info.

Sam Harris, founder and executive director of RESULTS will be in Madison on Sunday, May 1st to talk about his new book "Reclaiming our Democracy: Healing the break between people and government." Exact time and location to be announced. Call Jeff Golden, 829-1905 for more information.

Greetings from your past President. I want to thank all of you in the group with whom I had the pleasure to work these past few months. For those who don't know, I am going to France for a work abroad program. By the time you read this I will hopefully be somewhere in Paris serving croissants or in Cannes selling movie tickets. (I hope they get that labor riot stuff out of their system before I go looking for a job.)

I found the job of being group President to be very valuable and satisfying. It gave me opportunities I otherwise wouldn't have had. My biggest regret in leaving Madison for France is that I have to cut short my term as President. Also, I'll have to take a rain check on the Deadwood committee. I'll send post cards.

Calendar Steering Committee Minutes
2nd Sunday, 13 March 94

Money from the 94 Calendar:

We're allotting $25,000 as Set-Aside for expenses for the 95 Calendar. This leaves $14,000 to transfer to our Group, to use as it seems fit. Our big Gift-Away meeting will be in June, when we'll make lots of donations.

Don Sauer is handing over lots of the bookkeeping jobs; Peter is handling all the financial books under one Treasurer's umbrella; Kevin Nies is taking over invoicing.

The 95 Calendar:

Next month we'll discuss how many to print. Certainly more than 15,000 (the 94Cal's print run). But we first need to project how much individual market niches will grow. (Aim is to print about 2000 more than we sell, for donations to schools etc.) New customers may include: additional calendar wholesalers, PC itself, overseas markets. We are very conscious that we do not want to grow too quickly.

Bid requests have gone out to printers. The text is in good shape. (The Prudence and Good Taste Committee, composed of specially-recruited anal retentives and overly-sensitive, is presently reading Bob's Holiday text for errors and for unallowable eccentricities.) The photographers are doing all they should, including signing release forms. Typesetter gets text and photos on or before 10 April. Julie Olsen's graphic art is on track.

We'll have an ad in the autumn "World View" magazine. Lori will create it.

And when Chick Kosbach of the Nat'l PC Assoc. comes to town, the Cal committee should sit down with him. Especially to discuss marketing, and 'The Nature Company.'

Buck

I am currently putting together a list of e-mail addresses for RPCVs in the Madison area. Using e-mail I can send last-minute updates and messages to RPCVs, and other RPCVs can send messages to the group via myself.

If you have an e-mail address, and wish to be included on the list, please send me a message at:

Thank You.
